We are balancing offering groomed skiing with not over-grooming delicate, wet snow in warm temperatures. There is an forecast for accumulation of new snow today, this will improve snow depths and we will be grooming more extensively tonight. Trails that were previously groomed but not groomed last night are listed as "older grooming" because after the weather of the last 24 hours there will not be a marked difference between them. We are planning to have Friday Gliders today (there will not be a separate skate group today.)

We will be open, with limited services; no morning instruction, the rental/tune shop will open.
